

Dr. Manoj Sood
London, United Kingdom
SPECIALIZED IN ORTHOPAEDIC SURGERY

CURRENT POSITION

- › NHS Consultant specialized in hip and knee surgery

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY (KEY POSITIONS)

- › 17 years of practice in Orthopaedic Surgery
- › 9 years of Consultant practice

EDUCATION

- › Graduated MBBS in 1992
- › High training Orthopaedics and Trauma at The Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital (RNOH) in Stanmore and its associated hospitals
- › High training as a Senior Fellow in Hip and Knee surgery both in the UK and in two Centres of Excellence in North America

MEMBERSHIPS

- › Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons of England
- › Fellow of the British Orthopaedic Association (BOA)
- › Associate of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons (AAOS)
- › Member of the British Medical Association

CLINICAL INTERESTS

- › Knee and Hip Arthroscopy (“key-hole” surgery)
- › Joint Replacement Surgery: Hip replacement (mini-incision, cemented, uncemented and resurfacing), Knee replacement (partial knee replacement surgery)
- › Revision (“redo”) hip and knee replacement surgery
- › Joint Preservation Surgery: Osteotomies around the knee for early arthritis, Cartilage transplantation, KineSpring device
- › Sports injuries & Sports injury surgery: ACL reconstruction
- › Hand Surgery
- › Forefoot surgery (including modern “bunion” surgery)